JOSEPH HARLAND

Atlanta, GA

As a youth public policy advocate, chairman Markee Tate At the Atlanta Black Chambers, your business isn't just seen-it's supported, strengthened and celebrated.

NINA ALEXIS

Atlanta, GA

My Atlanta Black Chambers membership has been invaluable-providing connections, resources and opportunity while allowing me to shape perspective through art and design.

STRATEGIC ADVOCATE:

- Spearheads initiatives focused on:
 - Educational program development
 - Business opportunity creation
 - Public policy advocacy
- Driving competitive, profitable, and sustainable Black-owned businesses.

IMPACT THROUGH ATLANTA BLACK CHAMBERS

ORGANIZATIONAL GROWTH AND STRATEGIC DIRECTION

- Public Policy Advocacy: Focus on local, state, and federal public policy as essential for growth, led by "Public Policy Talks" and Advancing Black Businesses.
- Educational Programs: Creating and expanding educational programs and business opportunities, especially in access to capital and government contracts.
- Addressing Systemic Issues: Encouraging engagement with policy to combat systemic barriers, the racial wealth gap, and disparities in contracting.
- Strategic Partnerships: Collaborating with organizations like the Georgia Coalition of Black Chambers to enhance impact.
- Political Engagement: Promoting participation in the political process and connection with elected officials.
- Data-Driven Approach: Using surveys to identify the priorities and challenges faced by Black business owners for effective advocacy and program development.
