ABOUT SYLVIA

Sylvia Crawley Spann is a celebrated athlete, coach, entrepreneur, author, and speaker. Her pro career spanned 16 countries and included a pioneering blindfolded slam dunk in the ABL. Beyond playing, Sylvia has had a distinguished coaching career, including assistant roles at Fordham University, the youngest D1 Head Coach at Ohio University, and the first African American Head Coach in Boston College's history. As a motivational speaker, she currently leads her SLAM program for athletic and corporate teams worldwide. She has currently launched Speakers Stadium, where she teaches athletes how to turn their athletic journeys into speaking empires.
